6	MUNLIN RATH	24/10/2019	Sir, I am a married woman age 35 working in Telangana State development planning society under the Government of Telangana as a contractual employee from the last 6 years which renews every year. I got pregnant this year in January 2019 and blessed with a baby boy on 11/08/2019 (First child). Now I have applied for 26 weeks paid maternity leave as per maternity benefit act 1961. But my department is denying giving 26 weeks paid maternity leave stating that there is no such government order available from Telangana government for contractual women employees and they are also not sure about the maternity benefits for a contractual employee. So my question is that whether I am eligible for the 26 weeks paid maternity leave as per maternity act 1961 and its amendments 2017 or not. If not then what are the exact maternity benefit provision for a married contractual employee in Telangana state. And if I am eligible for the said benefit and department is denying giving so then what I can do in that situation. Thanks.	RTI Request Applicant Returned to Applicant	04/11/2019	Online	Direct	ATARI/R/2019/50070	As mentioned in the guidelines for use of this portal, this facility is not available for filing RTI applications for the public authorities under the State Governments, including Government of NCT Delhi.
